Analysis of an Umpire.

An umpire is a combination between a pirate, a kidnaper, a horse thief, a chicken stealer and a punching bag. He is employed by a baseball league to give the players something to yell at when they haven't hit the ball quite far enough to reach first base, and to give the audience something to throw at when the game isn't interesting them.

The umpire's duty is to decide whether the pitcher has put the ball over the plate and whether the runner has reached a base before the baseman has soaked him in the ribs with the ball. This would be easy a job as rearranging the tariff to suit everybody if it wasn't for one thing. Baseball players are very undignified and informal in their treatment of umpires. So are baseball fans. After an umpire has been treated by a crowd of players and fans for a few minutes he generally has to be put together with liquid glue. Baseball spectators are very fond of arguing a decision with pop bottles, chair cushions, ball bats, fence boards, bricks, turnips, players, benches and clubs. In some parts of the country it takes an unusually durable umpire to last nine innings.

Anyone can become a good baseball umpire after a few years' practice. He must be able to dodge large and small objects from four directions at once, to hypnotize 200-pound players who are peevish by looking them in the eye and saying "$10" in firm tones, and to watch a baseball in front of him and a base-runner behind him at the same time. A good baseball umpire should be entirely deaf and should possess a voice like a megaphone. He should enjoy being hated by everybody, and should find a deep pleasure in being escorted out of the park by nineteen policemen while two thousand fans clamor for his gore. A very good umpire is regarded as a little worse than a grave robber by almost everybody. A very poor one is so much more unpopular that prominent business men sometimes bite holes out of the wire netting in front of the grand stand in their eagerness to get him.

Baseball umpires sometimes live to a great age in spite of their unhealthy occupation, but no baseball umpire has ever been elected to a public office. An umpire once ran for the office of Dog Catcher in Chicago, and some citizens got up at 5 o'clock and voted all day against him. He lost the office by 3,000,000 votes, though the population of the city at that time was scarcely a million. A FAN.

The Causes of High Prices.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, who has just returned from a trip through the Western States, says that lack of farm hands is the chief cause of the high price of food stuffs. "All through the West and Northwest the same situation exists," said Mr. Wilson. "The country is as healthy and prosperous as it ever was but thousands of acres of valuable and fertile land are lying idle because the owners can't hire labor, although wages paid farm hands in these States are the equal of those paid to the laborers in our cities. The immigrants who land on our shores all flock to the larger cities and those of them who have done farming in their own countries are incompetent and nearly useless to the American farmers because they do not understand the modern machinery used on the farms in this country. Prices of grains and vegetables therefore are bound to be high and of course with these staples selling at high prices the value of meats is thereby raised.

Many Automobiles.

Two hundred thousand motor cars are to be manufactured in America next year, says the Lexington Gazette.

This is the calculation of General Manager Alfred Reeves, of the American Motor Car Manufacturers' Association after an extended trip through Pennsylvania and New England and other parts of the country where he has been studying conditions and plans of producers. Figures and plans taken from makers of axle magneto frames and other parts have served to make up Mr. Reeves' estimate. This is hardly a factory of automobile parts in the United States says he but that is not contemplating enlarging and increasing facilities.

Only the question of sufficient expert labor will serve to cut down the number of cars to be turned out. At present there are 150,000 motor cars in the United States according to Mr. Reeves. Of the cars to be turned out next year, 105,000 will be pleasure cars, 30,000 high wheel buggies made by carriage concerns and 5,000 steam and electric carriages and commercial carriages. The average price will be about $2,500 cars below $1,500 being in great demand although there is no lessening in the demand for cars of high grade. Auto manufacturers look for the increase next year, with perfect confidence. They believe they will be unable to supply the national demand. The Lexington Motor Car Company will manufacture a $1,500 car and will put out 300 of them. The company claims they have already 175 of these sold. Their present highest price car sells for $2,500.

FOR YOU AND YOUR WIFE

A cheerful, pretty bedroom will help you to start your day in a cheerful pleasant mood. Its a haven of rest for you to come back to at night. And all day long it is a pleasure to your wife.

To make a pretty bedroom it is more important to have tasteful furniture that harmonizes, than furniture that merely costs a lot. A brass bed, or a pretty white iron bed if you prefer, bureau and chiffonier of light color (birdseye maple is especially pretty) a low rocking chair and one or two straight back chairs to match, a mirror five foot high screwed on to closet door, a sofa upholstered in cretonne, a shirtwaist box covered with the same, and the cretonne repeated in hangings at the window over white muslin curtains, a light colored rug on the floor—all this does not cost very much, if you buy from us, and makes a pretty room. Come in and talk it over.

Don't forget to get a STEARNS & FOSTER mattress. That is what makes your bedroom a haven of rest. No other mattress is so comfortable.

Made in four grades of superiority; $10.50 to $22.50. Windsor Grade at $13.50 is guaranteed superior to any other advertised mattress. We sell it on 60 nights' trial. If you are not with it at the end of that time we will return your money without question or comment.
